Grant	Arts & Culture	All	Pen America Writers' Emergency Fund	PEN America is expanding its long-standing Writers' Emergency Fund as part of our efforts to support the literary community at a time when the health and livelihoods of so many are at risk. We recognize that there are writers who no longer have access to any of the ways in which they have supported themselves, and that this has happened very suddenly and will last for a period none of us can predict. In response, PEN America will distribute grants of $500 to $1,000 based on applications that demonstrate an inability to meet an acute financial need, especially one resulting from the impact of the COVID-19 outbreak.	Applicants must be based in the United States, be a professional writer, and be able to demonstrate that this one-time grant will be meaningful in helping them to address an emergency situation.
Grant	Arts & Culture	All	Queer Writers of Color Relief Fund	We understand there are many in need and hopefully we will receive enough to help everyone, but this means we most likely be unable to provide the full amount you request. The amount we can provide is based off how much we receive. We will do the best we can to help everyone. At this time, we are able to give the minimum of $100 and a maximum of $500.	This fund is for queer writers of color only, not organizations or nonprofits, who are in need of financial assistance right now.
Grant	Arts & Culture	All	Rauschenberg Emergency Grants	New York Foundation for the Arts (NYFA) is proud to partner with the Robert Rauschenberg Foundation to administer a new emergency grant program called Rauschenberg Emergency Grants. This marks the first phase of a program that will be in the tradition of Change, Inc., a non-profit foundation established in 1970 by Robert Rauschenberg to assist professional artists of all disciplines in need of emergency medical aid. The program will provide one-time grants of up to $5,000 for unexpected medical emergencies.	The grants are available to visual and media artists and choreographers who are U.S. citizens or permanent residents in the United States, District of Columbia, or U.S. Territories.	There is no deadline; applications will be accepted and reviewed by the panel on a monthly basis beginning in late May/early June 2020.

Loan	Tourism & Hospitality	All	Restaurant Workers' Community Foundation Zero Interest Loans for Restaurants	The RWCF is in the process of working with our legal advisors to develop this area of work. In the coming weeks, we will produce a draft set of criteria for small businesses that can be applied fairly, and which align with our mission of supporting hospitality industry leaders committed to creating better working conditions across our four program areas: wage fairness and career ladders, gender equity and sexual violence, racial justice and support for the immigrant community, mental health and substance abuse. As we develop criteria, we will explore whether or not we can or should publicly name the businesses supported through the program, but at the very least, we will report on number of loans made and other relevant data. The Restaurant Workers' COVID19 Crisis Relief Fund is currently open.		Please sign up for their newsletter to know when applications are open for these funds.
Loan	All	All	PayPal Working Capital	PayPal Working Capital is based on your PayPal sales history, so you receive an amount that fits your business. There's no credit check when you apply, so there's no effect on your credit score. There's just one fixed fee determined by: the amount of your loan, the repayment percentage you select, your business's PayPal sales history. There are no other fees and no periodic interest. You pay back the loan automatically with a percentage of your sales that you choose when you apply. The higher your sales, the faster you repay. On days without sales, you won't pay a thing, but you need to repay a minimum of 5% or 10% every 90 days to keep your loan in good standing. You can also make manual payments and even pay the loan in full anytime with no early repayment fee.	Active PayPal sales account.	Due to high demand, application processing may be delayed

Other	All	All	COVID-19 Finance Assistance Network	Lew's List in partnership with High Plains Advisors and Foundry Group have assembled a group of CFOs, Controllers, and other senior Finance professionals to help businesses survive. We are focused on the assessment and execution of strategies to extend/improve businesses cash flows. This may include navigating and accessing The CARES Act and the Families First Act programs. It may also require assistance with human capital and tax planning issues and/or the design and implementation of other business strategies where needed. One of the key pillars of the stimulus programs is the PPP - Paycheck Protection Program. We fully appreciate the interest, urgency and desire for assistance to apply for funding under this program. It may be as simple as helping fill out or compiling the necessary information to complete the appropriate forms. It might be assisting to find alternative funding to bridge the time between applying for and receiving certain stimulus funds. These services will be provided pro bono – our commitment is helping businesses in our communities stay in our communities.
Other	All	All	COVID-19: Ad credits for Google Ads Small and Medium-sized Businesses	We want to help alleviate some of the cost for small and medium-sized businesses (SMBs) to stay in touch with their customers during this challenging time. That's why we're giving our SMBs worldwide $340 million in ad credits, which can be used at any point until the end of 2020 across our Google Ads platforms. SMBs who have been active advertisers since the beginning of 2019 will see a credit notification appear in their Google Ads account in the coming months. This is part of a larger commitment from Google to support SMBs, health organizations and governments, and health workers on the frontline of this global pandemic.	Active Google advertising user.
